hungry, ending the motel homeless epidemic and developing young professionals among at-risk youth.

Remember to support our Club in the Chili Cook-off at Anaheim Stadium this Saturday. There are 16 million young people walking as a direct result of Rotary International's Polio effort. Furthermore, our Rotary International Foundation earns top rankings every year for efficiency and transparency. Have a bowl of Hockett's chili and take in the roar of the crowd to celebrate your generosity and impact.

Last Saturday a multitude of Rotarians gathered outside Gabrielle Canale's Raindance in Debra Fixen's beautiful Shoreline Village and started a relaxing weekend with a little exercise. Thanks to Steve Shaw, Meredith Shaw and Steve Kuykendall for getting us all together and Terry Geiling for leading the cyclists.
