Happy New Year! Here's to a happy, healthy, helpful and prosperous 2018!

We start off the year with bittersweet news regarding an important member of our Rotary family. Virginia Zart, who served our club for three wonderful years in an administrative capacity alongside Madrid, has moved on to a full time job with the Long Beach Police Department. Virginia has a heart of gold and is the consummate professional. Our only solace is in knowing that our loss is our Police Department's gain; she had been working with the PD part-time while serving us. Virginia and her husband Nicholas will always be dear friends and important members of our community. While Virginia is leaving us in a professional capacity we will still enjoy her company and community. January 19th is her final
