President's Message

This week's speaker is a local guy with a veritable legend. Everett Glenn is a world class lawyer who has negotiated on behalf of all kinds of interesting clients. Make sure you make it to the Queen this Wednesday to hear him.

February fellowship starts off this Thursday at the Boathouse on the Bay, owned by Rotarian John Morris. This Five O'Clock Somewhere provides an opportunity to unwind with spectacular sunset views. Gaze out over the water while eating and drinking in the finest of company. These gatherings are what being a Rotarians is all about and I look forward to seeing you all there.
