This Week's Lunch Meeting -
July 26 - OFFSITE -
Centennial Park - Deputy Chief Richard Conant

We continue our Centennial celebration with a lunch program at Centennial Park, the park our club created to honor Rotary International's 100th birthday in 2005. One entrance is located on E. Pacific Coast Highway between Cherry and Junipero Streets. Another entrance is on Junipero Street near PCH. LBCC has offered supplemental parking at their PCH and Walnut parking lot (parking permit required). Lunch provided by TGIS Creative Cuisine & Event Planning (Sofia Riley).

Deputy Chief Richard Conant will be the guest speaker. 4th District Councilman Daryl Supernaw and other special guests who helped create and continue to support the park will be in attendance. The K-9 unit will also come to enjoy lunch in the park. Please dress appropriately for the sun.

President's Message

This Wednesday we celebrate 100 years of Long Beach Rotary in a park our members created in anticipation of Rotary International's Centennial Celebration in 2005. Since inception in 2003 through refurbishment this very day the funding, design, construction and upkeep of Centennial Park has illuminated a culture of service and a labor of love among members, civic government and the community at large.

Rotary Club of Long Beach usually meets every Wednesday at 12:00 noon on the Queen Mary 1119 Queens Highway, Suite 103, Long Beach, CA 90802
